Have you been thinking about what the working world is really like? Do you want information about the supports and strategies that have been helpful to other youth for work or volunteering? Maybe you don't feel like a "typical" job or volunteer role is the best fit for you, and you are wondering how you go about creating something more unique? Would your parents benefit from hearing how they can also be helpful? Come out to our Reality 101 series and get the inside scoop.

A panel of parents and youth will share information and tips about their experience with a variety of options for employment and/or volunteering. You will have an opportunity to connect with others and ask any questions you may have.
