Offered in partnership with El Sistema South London <https://www.esslondon.ca/> this exciting new program is developed and presented by Margaret Wolsley, a music educator with 20 years of experience creating school music programs for children and youth with special needs. Participants, age 5 to 18 years, will learn music fundamentals through drumming in a group setting designed to develop, improve and practice social and communication skills. Support is provided by TVCC volunteers and staff. Participants must commit to regular attendance. Class size is limited.
