Board Chair and CEO Report

PAUL HOWARTH
Chief Executive Officer

RYAN MCKIE
Board Chair

"Leadership is not about being the best. It's about making everyone else better."

- Bill Gates

We are proud to present this year's Annual Report, which reflects a year of remarkable milestones, renewed connections, and unwavering commitment to the children, youth, and families we serve. At TVCC, 2024 was a year of celebration, collaboration, and forward momentum.

We were honoured to mark TVCC's 75th Anniversary, commemorating our legacy with a vibrant Open House. This event offered a meaningful opportunity to reflect on our history, highlight key milestones, and celebrate with community members, guest speakers, and engaging historical displays. Further honouring this milestone, our 75th Anniversary video received gold in the Health Care Videos category at the dotCOMM Awards, a testament to our continued excellence in digital storytelling.

"Success is not measured by what we accomplish, but by the difference we make in the lives of others."

- Unknown

In partnership with Western University's Faculty of Health Sciences, we proudly co-hosted the 10th Annual Child Health Symposium, fostering innovation and dialogue around child health and well-being. Our Annual General Meeting and Staff Recognition Event returned in person, a welcome occasion to acknowledge the contributions and dedication of our incredible team.

"The function of leadership is to produce more leaders, not more followers."

- Ralph Nadar

TVCC also enhanced its regional presence by relocating to a new office in Strathroy, reinforcing our commitment to community access and outreach. We further strengthened community ties by hosting the Rotary Club of London and supporting the London Food Bank through our annual staff food drive.

Strategic growth remained a key focus. We launched the development of our 2025–2030 Strategic Plan, engaging staff, board members, and community partners through extensive focus groups. We also continued to elevate donor engagement and successfully secured a $1.6M grant from the Children's Health Foundation, a 23% increase from the previous year.

Our commitment to equity, diversity, and inclusion (EDI) was reaffirmed through the introduction of a new Gender Practice Guideline, the launch of an EDI Teams Channel, and the celebration of Pride events across the organization. We also welcomed Ryan McKie as Board Chair and Jordyn Liebman as a new Board Director, bringing fresh perspectives and leadership.

We made significant strides in digital transformation and service delivery. Our Autism and Behavioural Services (ABS) program launched redesigned webpages for improved accessibility, released a new promotional video, and received a 77% funding increase for the Entry to School program. We increased the frequency of our cerebral palsy clinics, starting in March, with a goal to quadruple our service capacity. We also revamped our IT help desk system, integrating AI and Microsoft 365 to improve staff support.

Internally, we hosted a Winter Wellness Event, virtual Town Halls, and a children's book-themed door decorating contest—just a few examples of how we continue to nurture a supportive, inclusive workplace culture. Looking ahead, we are excited to host a combined staff and volunteer recognition event and anti-ableism workshop in June, further reinforcing our values.

These accomplishments would not be possible without the continued dedication of our staff, the trust of our families, the generosity of our supporters, and the passion of our partners. Together, we are creating a brighter, more inclusive future for every child and youth we serve.

Journey to Equity, Diversity and Inclusion (EDI)

Chair- Lynn Seward

At the heart of our Equity, Diversity, and Inclusion initiatives is an unwavering commitment to advancing human rights, driving innovation to reduce and dismantle barriers, and critically reflecting on how different elements influence our experiences, perspectives, and actions.

Recognizing the universal need to belong as our authentic selves, we reflected on how decisions, actions, and processes shape culture and comfort in our workplace, with clients, families, volunteers, and community providers. Over the year, we focused on listening and engagement to foster connections, strengthen relationships, and lead with responsiveness.

This year, TVCC became an Employer Partner of the Canadian Centre for Diversity and Inclusion (CCDI). This national charity's mandate is to build a more inclusive Canada and partners with over 700 organizations across the country to help build strong and healthy workplaces, schools, and communities. This partnership will provide us with many benefits to support our organizations EDI journey, such as access to a Knowledge Repository filled with resources across multiple search parameters. This partnership also provides access to events, networking, and resources covering some of the most topical conversations and initiatives around diversity and inclusion in the Canadian workplace.

The EDI Committee is committed to using this information to guide informed recommendations, strengthen accountability, and leverage resources and partnerships. These efforts will support ongoing policy reviews and ensure alignment with our mission, vision, and values in fostering an inclusive and equitable environment.

Looking ahead, we aim to learn from the diverse insights of TVCC staff, clients, families, volunteers, community partners, and other healthcare organizations advancing EDI initiatives. Upcoming professional development modules will foster curiosity, encourage inquiry, and support ongoing learning.

Guided by cultural humility, we will reflect on our growth and relationships to move forward. Together, we aim to anticipate needs, build sustainable connections, and foster unifying action across our organization.

We will continue to listen and learn to understand the challenges ahead, while critically examining who is at the table, who is missing, and how that shapes our organization – as we remain committed to embedding equity, diversity, and inclusion in all we do.

Community, Strength, and Triumph: Austin's Journey with TVCC and Beyond

Austin, 4, Congenital Heart Defect, Tracheostomy, London ON

As a newborn, Austin spent 490 days in hospital!

Between major cardiac surgeries for his congenital heart defect, complications like chest infections and the need for a tracheotomy, Austin went through the first year and a half of his life in hospital. With Austin's medical needs come significant mobility and developmental needs, like tracheotomy support and ensuring he can zip around in his customized stroller!

Austin needs the best care that his health care teams offer. Followed closely by his expert teams at TVCC, Austin benefits from their expertise in seating and mobility, physiotherapy, occupational therapy, speech and language services.

TVCC is essential for ensuring Austin is fully supported as he faces new opportunities!

To help Austin be successful with major milestones like school, TVCC meets Austin and his family where they are in school transition meetings, connects them with community partners, and helps plan what comes next with his TVCC services. Right now, Austin and his family are discovering what communication works best for him – he's currently learning sign language alongside his older sister!

Experts at TVCC are always listening for Austin's newest interests, medical hurdles and more, so his support is tailored to his unique wants and needs! Each new milestone is met with hope and possibility.

Thanks to TVCC, families like Austin's are never alone. Through TVCC's programming, there's always another family to meet who faces similar hurdles and has similar goals.

TVCC's community is full of people who love, support and understand Austin's journey.

That's the difference donors make. You ensure that TVCC is full of the best people, equipment, programs and research, which help TVCC clients like Austin discover what their "best life" looks like for them.

Every dollar helps TVCC provide wraparound supports and services for children and youth with disabilities.

Dr. John A. LaPorta Learning Award

This year, the Dr. John A. LaPorta Learning Award presents two $1,000 awards - one for a TVCC client and one for the child of a TVCC staff member. The award is intended to support an educational / growth experience and assist to realize a dream.

Supporting the development of the talents, abilities and opportunities for clients as well as TVCC staff children is at the heart of this award.

Successful transition from school to adult life benefits from the support to pursue postsecondary learning experiences and the rewards that come with following your dreams.

This award was established in 2019, when former CEO, Dr. John LaPorta retired after 25 years at the helm of TVCC.

Thank you to Jim Cressman, longtime supporter of the Children's Health Foundation and TVCC for his donation to establish this award. Jim wanted to honour the dedication and impact Dr.

LaPorta had on the community and children's health. John's wish was that this award would continue to help young people pursue their dreams for many years to come.

Special thanks to members of the Communication/Education/Technology Committee of the Board for the daunting task of choosing winners amongst the many deserving candidates.

Kayley Davey
TVCC Staff Child

Turning Challenges into Opportunities for Others.

For Kayley, winning the Dr. John LaPorta Award is a moment of validation, inspiration, and support as she embarks on a journey to become an educator for children with disabilities. Having faced her own challenges growing up, Kayley is determined to ensure that future generations of children receive the guidance and assistance she lacked.

Kayley's passion stems from personal experience. Diagnosed with dyspraxia and PNES, she struggled in school due to a lack of awareness and resources for her conditions. This hardship ignited her desire to create a more inclusive and understanding learning environment for children who face similar obstacles. She believes her experiences give her a unique ability to connect with and support children who may feel unheard or misunderstood. Inspired by her father, a dedicated member of TVCC, Kayley aspires to follow in his footsteps, making a meaningful difference in children's educational journeys.

Kayley has a clear plan for her future. After graduating high school, she will attend Algonquin College's Early Childhood Education program, a two-to-three-year course designed to equip students with the skills needed to work with young learners. She is also taking American Sign Language (ASL) classes to expand her communication abilities, ensuring she can connect with children of all abilities. Through her program's co-op placement, she will gain firsthand experience in schools, further preparing her to enter the field immediately after graduation.

The Dr. John LaPorta Award is a crucial stepping stone in Kayley's journey. As a student with a disability, she requires specialized learning tools, which can be costly in addition to tuition fees. Receiving this financial support alleviates a major burden, allowing her to focus entirely on her education and training. But beyond the financial aspect, this award provides Kayley with something even more valuable—confidence and motivation. Knowing that TVCC believes in her fuels her determination to succeed and make a lasting impact in the lives of children with disabilities.

For Kayley, this award isn't just about her own success; it's about the countless children she will one day help. With the support of TVCC and the Dr. John LaPorta Award, she is ready to turn her dream into reality, ensuring that every child, regardless of their abilities, receives the support, education, and encouragement they deserve.

Congratulations to Kayley! We look forward to seeing her future contributions to inclusive education.

Congratulations!!

A Dream of Helping Others Comes to Life

For Eli, receiving the John LaPorta Bursary Award is more than just financial assistance—it's a stepping stone toward achieving his lifelong dream of making a difference in the lives of others.

Whether through working with children who have special needs or pursuing his passion for mechanics, Eli is committed to a future that blends purpose with passion.

From a young age, Eli has faced challenges head-on. A brain injury has made some tasks more difficult, but he has never let that define him. Instead, he has embraced perseverance and hard work, earning honours every year throughout high school at Arthur Voaden Secondary School.

His dedication to learning and personal growth is evident not only in his academic achievements but also in his willingness to explore multiple career paths that align with his desire to help others. Eli's love for auto mechanics has led him to excel in his auto shop classes, where he has received the highest academic awards in both Grade 9 and 11. However, he also has a deep connection to the field of education, inspired by the incredible support he received from his Education Assistants in elementary school. This has motivated him to consider a career working with children with special needs, hoping to provide the same encouragement and assistance that helped him succeed.

Through his hard work and careful planning, Eli is preparing to take the next step in his journey. He is working with his guidance counsellor and resource centre support worker to secure a co-op placement as an Education Assistant with the Thames Valley District School Board. This hands-on experience will help him determine whether his future lies in education or mechanics.

Regardless of the path he chooses, he remains steadfast in his goal of making a meaningful impact. With the support of the John LaPorta Bursary Award, Eli will have the financial means to pursue the post-secondary education he needs to achieve his dreams. Whether he decides to work in education, assist individuals with special needs, or start his own auto shop in his rural community, this award helps him have the resources to explore his potential fully.

Eli expresses deep gratitude for the ongoing support of TVCC, an organization that has been instrumental in his journey for over 15 years. As he moves forward into this exciting chapter of his life, he remains committed to giving back to his community, helping others overcome their own obstacles, and proving that with determination and support, anything is possible.

Congratulations to Eli! We are excited to see all that he will accomplish in the years ahead!
